CRISIS MANAGEMENT IN THE TIME OF COVID 19 improvise, adapt and overcome

9th of April 2021

Call for Participation

AREMA, Academy of regional management is pleased to issue this call for papers and expressions of interest in the CRISIS MANAGEMENT IN THE TIME OF COVID 19 International round table to be held 9 April on-line via ZOOM application.

Mission

The epidemiological crisis will have major consequences for human life and health. In particular, it will affect most spheres in the economy.

The main purpose of our round table will be to create a platform for professional discussion, supported by a wide range of topics arising from social and economic activities, both in terms of management, leadership, organization and implementation of these.

With particular emphasis on crisis management, this international event will provide opportunities for collaboration, mentoring, sharing and exchanging ideas.

Round table Objectives

- Celebrate the courage, creativity, strength of conviction and humanity of socially responsible leaders and their capacity to leave a lasting legacy impacting the future development of communities and organizations across the world.
- Inspire innovation and stimulate opportunities for managers to lead responsibly in the world, in their nations, in their communities and in their homes.
- Build bridges and encourage collaboration between students and their professors and managers.
- Create a synergistic, inspirational and motivational environment enabling ethical, unique and dynamic debate.
- Affirm AREMA's commitment to educating students globally for and about leadership and crisis management.
